

CulturePod.ch: Interview of Adrian Kosmaczewski by Thierry Weber

Adrian Kosmaczewski

2010-04-01

Adrian Kosmaczewski, the CEO of akosma software talks¹ to the microphone of CulturePod.ch². Whether the importance of ensuring the communication via a device like the iPhone or iPad but also the list of applications, Adrian explains the opportunities of this platform.

With his catalog of applications such as SwissAlert⁴, Notitas⁵ or Bluewoki⁶, he is mostly behind the development of the official iPhone application⁷ of Lift, the famous swiss conference⁸ (Life Idea, Future and Technology) launched by Laurent Haug. An application that has emerged as a result of collaboration between akosma software and ThierryWeber.com⁹. In addition to the cap developer he's also organizing conferences about mobile market¹⁰ and especially the iPhone. Adrian is also writing a book on the same subject.
