The update frenzy continues! This is a long due update, one that we have been pushing back for a while; finally, RooiFonts 1.1<sup>1</sup> is ready to be downloaded from the App Store! RooiFonts our popular font viewer that allows users to browse, compare, share and learn about the fonts installed in iOS.

This new version is now a Universal application, that runs both on the iPad, the iPhone and the iPod touch! It also features nice new icons, compatible with the Retina display of the iPhone 4, and we've also updated the application for compatibility with iOS 4.0+ only<sup>2</sup>.

As usual, this is a free update for existing customers. Get it now!<sup>3</sup> We are also going to give away some promo codes on the RooiFonts Twitter account<sup>4</sup>, so stay tuned and follow us!
